The Phelps Case

On the calling of the case of the Commonwealth vs. Phelps, the Commonwealths Attorney moved to dismiss the case on the grounds that the Fayette Circuit Court and not the Madison Circuit Court had jurisdiction to try the case. This view was concurred in by the family of the young lady who signed a paper to that effect.

The civil claim of the father against Phelps for the alleged wrongful taking of his infant daughter, was settled out of court.

The case was dismissed here and no transfer of same was made to Fayette. It is presumed that no further action will be taken. Judge Hugh Riddell, of Irvine, presided as special judge, Judge Benton being of kin by marriage to defendant, Phelps.

Col. Deatherage Returns

Col. N. B. Deatherage has returned from a trip to Chattanooga where he has been at the old soldiers reunion. He is wearing a smile a yard wide. These reunions rejuvenate him and make him lay aside ten years of business cares. He never misses them.

The colonel will attend the reunion of the Blue and the Gray at Gettysburg next month. This reunion will be on a grand scale and its memories will linger long in the hearts of those who attend. One country—one flag—one people; united in sentiment, in purpose and in achievement.

Joe Bush Dead

Mr. Joe Bush, of this city, was paralyzed the first part of the week and his death was expected at any minute. He lingered for some days and was unconscious most of the time up to the time of his death which occurred Wednesday. He was buried Thursday afternoon in the Richmond Cemetery.

He had been in frail health for several years. He was a native of Clark county, but came to Richmond many years ago.

Seeks Assistant Attorneyship

Judge J. J. Greenleaf, of Richmond, is another applicant for the place of Assistant United States Attorney for the Eastern district of Kentucky, and, it is said, he has a mighty good chance of landing the appointment, being strongly backed by influential friends. Judge Greenleaf, who presides over the police court of Richmond, is one of the best known democrats in the Eighth district. He is well known in military circles, having been at one time a Major in the Kentucky State Guard.—Louisville Times.

Recital

(Contributed)

The Normal chapel was the scene of a very beautiful recital given on Tuesday evening by a trio of artists, Misses Edla Lund, soprano, Irma Knapheide, reader, and Edna Gwynne, pianist and accompanist.

Miss Lund's selections were varied and interesting and afforded her an opportunity for the display of the unusual power and range of her voice. She sang with fine interpretation the "Prayer from Tosca" and "Liet Signor" from Les Huguenots, besides other charming and beautiful numbers.

Miss Knapheide's reading of "Madam Butterfly" was in every way exquisite. She gave the pathetic story with perfect finish, holding her audience spellbound through the six scenes.

Miss Gwynne's accompaniments were rendered with the most sympathetic understanding. Besides these she played Schumann's Grille and Galatea from Jensen in a manner most creditable to so young an artist.

Colored Memorial Services

Friday at the colored First Baptist Church in this city the colored people observed memorial day in a suitable manner. Rev. Robt. Kennedy was the master of ceremonies and Rev. G. B. Miller was the orator of the day. Some of the school children gave very creditable recitations. A feature of the day was the song service rendered by a choir of splendid voices.

The oration of Rev. Miller was well delivered and full of good things for the present generation of the colored race.

After the exercises at the church were concluded, an excellent dinner was served to the veterans and the assembled people.

The services were concluded at the cemetery where the graves of the soldiers were decorated with a profusion of flowers.

Mexican War Veterans to Meet

It is believed that only 25 Mexican war veterans will be physically able to attend the National reunion of such soldiers to be held at London Ohio, July 10 and 11.

Capt. John A. Fisher, of Chillicothe, Ohio, President of the National Association, served in the Second Ohio Infantry during the Mexican war, and is 87 years of age. He is blind in one eye and can see but a little out of the other, yet he goes to Columbus on the traction line alone.—Kentucky Citizen.

Dr. Zinke

Dr. Stanley Zinke, an eminent physician of the Allopathic School, has come to Richmond to make his home. Dr. Zinke was for years in the United States Army and for some time past has practiced in Cincinnati. His offices will be in the Collins Building. At present he and his wife and little daughter, will have apartments at the Glyndon. We bespeak for the Doctor and his charming family a cordial welcome.

Adjudged Insane

Mrs. Rebecca E. Walker of this city was adjudged to be of unsound mind in Judge Shackelford's court last Saturday. She is the wife of Milton K. Walker who resides on the East side of this city on Big Hill avenue. She was committed to the asylum at Lexington, Kentucky and was taken there by the sheriff Saturday afternoon.

Twelve Old Maids Famous in History

Queen Elizabeth, in whose reign England reached her golden age.

Florence Nightingale, angel of mercy in the Crimean war and establisher of organized nursing in war times.

Dorothea Dix, pioneer of reform in prison and reformatory methods.

Frances E. Willard, founder of the temperance movement.

Rosa Bonheur, who opened new artistic fields in the representation of animal life.

Clara Barton, founder of the Red Cross Society and savior of thousands from death and suffering.

Joan of Arc, one of the important factors in French history.

Susan B. Anthony, pioneer in efforts to procure more equal rights for women.

Charlotte Bronte, whose novels are among the best in English literature.

Jane Austen, whose pen pictures of English village life promise to be immortal.

Jane Addams, first citizen of Chicago and head of the Hull House.

Julia Lathrop, chosen from among the women of America to lead in preserving child life and happiness throughout the county.—Ex.

Painfully Hurt

Gordon Barnes, son of Rev. E. B. Barnes, received a very painful injury last week on the campus. He and Mr. G. C. Bradley were running to catch a fly ball, when they collided with great force. Mr. Bradley's head struck Mr. Barnes near the eye, knocking him limp. He was unconscious for about half an hour. Friends hurried him home. Medical aid was summoned and he was brought around. While he is still suffering from the jar, it is thought that he will be able to be out in a few days.

Killing at Keene

A difficulty took place Saturday night at Keene between Sam Ester Ballard and Clay Bledsoe in which the former was shot and killed. Bledsoe was arrested and lodged in jail here, his examining trial will be called for Friday. Both colored.—Jessamine News.

McCord Off

Mr. D. A. McCord withdrew from the race for Jailer. Before doing so he took all the candidates for that office in his office and declared his intention to all collectively, so that each one would have an equal opportunity to corral his supporters.

Circuit Court Adjourns

Circuit Court has adjourned for the term. The grand jury returned about thirty-five indictments, being only a very small percentage of those violating the law in Madison county, the others being skillful enough "to not get caught."
